AAACO

American Association of Accountable Care Organizations

The American Association of Accountable Care Organizations (AAACO)

serves to advance the development of accountable care organizations by providing education, advocacy, and networking opportunities to those individuals and organizations participating in accountable care organizations.

Membership Benefits:

Access to:

- ◆ Benchmarking studies (discounted rate) that highlight industry trends to help ACOs operate more efficiently;
- ◆ Best practice sharing through an interactive resource library that will provide documents, templates, articles, and other information to help ACOs become established and improve business practices.
- ◆ Website Member Login: Access to: list serves to connect with other members; best practices; resource library.
- ◆ Collaborate with other ACOs and related businesses to stay abreast of industry trends, government regulations, legislative changes, legal issues, etc.
- ◆ Discounts to AAACO meetings/conferences, webinars, and other educational forums.
- ◆ Public policy advocacy representing member interests at the federal legislative and regulatory level.
- ◆ Resources for creating and maintaining ACOs such as checklists, and forms, etc.

The challenges in delivering quality and cost-effective healthcare have never been greater. The ACO model is not only the latest model to meet these challenges, but also may soon be mandated by the government. The AAACO provides the unique opportunity for stakeholders to have a voice in the process of the development of the ACOs and provide a critical forum for reconciling the varied interests among them.

~ Todd Freeman, CEO, AAACO
